Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Chief Human Capital Officer (CHCO) supports the Office of the Director of National Intelligence by establishing and overseeing the implementation of the full range of Human Capital programs, processes, and policies. The CHCO has established the Strategic Human Capital Plan for the Intelligence Community (IC) that deals directly with talent, performance, and leadership to attract, engage, and unify an innovative and results-focused workforce in support of the National Intelligence Strategy—and ultimately the security of our nation. Following the IC Strategic HC Plan, the Office of the CHCO develops and implements policies, practices, and processes that leverage commonality across the IC and maximizes the strengths of individual agencies.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- The DNI Human Capital Office (IC CHCO) is seeking a dynamic and innovative officer to lead the effort in support of the IC Human Capital Vision 2020 program. The IC Human Capital Vision 2020 program is responsible for the overall strategic management of the IC's near- and long-term human capital initiatives through 2020 and beyond. Vision 2020 program leads report to the IC CHCO Council on initiative progress and activities and keep appropriate congressional intelligence oversight committees apprised of all Vision 2020 initiatives. The incumbent will work with the IC CHCO Council, representatives from the 17 elements of the IC, and Change Champions for each Vision 2020 initiative to draft integration plans, formulate initiative definitions and scope, identify measurable goals, objectives, metrics and conduct project management assessments to determine progress towards each initiative. In addition, the incumbent will facilitate coordination and information sharing between related human capital efforts to bring awareness of potentially duplicative efforts, and to integrate activities when feasible. Further, the incumbent will collaborate with IC Elements to analyze the return on investment of potential impacts related to the Vision 2020 initiatives. The incumbent may represent the IC CHCO office at external federal fora led by the Office of Personnel Management or other government entities. The incumbent will facilitate wider IC engagement and involvement by scheduling meetings and drafting and publishing communications concerning Vision 2020 initiatives.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Demonstrated ability and experience in leading teams and building consensus to further human capital efforts and achieve strategic milestones.
- Demonstrated ability to build and sustain professional networks.
- Knowledge of federal and/or IC human capital programs, specifically for performance management, HC statute authorities and work life programs.
- Exceptional oral and written communications skills.
- Excellent project management and critical thinking skills.
- Experience in problem solving and resolving conflict.
